

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

Series SS 01-2025-40

This is to certify that
Serhii Nikolaichuk

facebook

has successfully completed the Roundtable Discussion
“Digital Lexicography in the Age of AI: Challenges and Innovations for Multilingual Europe”
organized on March 26, 2025 (online via Zoom), as part of the Summer School module
“European Studies for Supporting Polish Education and Research in Digital Transformation: An Interdisciplinary Approach”, covering the following key topics:

LinkedIn

- The Role of AI in Digital Lexicography
- Digital Lexicography for Language Learning and Teaching
- EU Lexicographic Policies and Multilingualism
- Future Trends in Digital Lexicography
- Dictionaries in Teacher Training and School Education

This roundtable discussion, delivered by Dr. Yan Kapranov, Assistant Professor at the School of Humanities and Fine Arts, University of Economics and Human Sciences in Warsaw (Poland), and Prof. Olena Semenog, Director of the Center for Scientific-Educational Partnership and Network Cooperation of Sумы State Pedagogical University (Ukraine), focused on the role of digital lexicography in multilingual EU contexts.

It explored the use of AI in modern dictionary-making, digital tools for language learning and teaching, and the integration of lexicographic resources in school education and teacher training. The module also addressed EU policies promoting multilingualism and examined future trends in digital lexicography, including ethical and user-centered innovations.

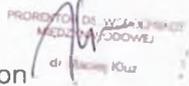

Emphasis was placed on how digital dictionaries support European values, intercultural understanding, and inclusive education in the age of digital transformation.

Total Duration: 3 academic hours
Total Credits Earned: 0,1 ECTS credits

The event is organized within the framework of the ESPERIDTA project – European Studies for Supporting Polish Education and Research in Digital Transformation: Interdisciplinary Approach (Grant Agreement 101172710 – ESPERIDTA – ERASMUS-JMO-2024-HEI-TCH-RSCH).

Dr. Maciej Kluz

Vice-Rector for International Cooperation

Funded by European Union

Dr. Yan Kapranov

Project Coordinator

Date: 26.03.25

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

Series SS 01-2025-43

This is to certify that

Богдан Петров

facebook

has successfully completed the Roundtable Discussion
“Digital Lexicography in the Age of AI: Challenges and Innovations for Multilingual Europe”

organized on March 26, 2025 (online via Zoom), as part of the Summer School module
“European Studies for Supporting Polish Education and Research in Digital Transformation: An Interdisciplinary Approach”,
covering the following key topics:

- The Role of AI in Digital Lexicography
- Digital Lexicography for Language Learning and Teaching
- EU Lexicographic Policies and Multilingualism
- Future Trends in Digital Lexicography
- Dictionaries in Teacher Training and School Education

This roundtable discussion, delivered by Dr. Yan Kapranov, Assistant Professor at the School of Humanities and Fine Arts, University of Economics and Human Sciences in Warsaw (Poland), and Prof. Olena Semenog, Director of the Center for Scientific-Educational Partnership and Network Cooperation of Sумы State Pedagogical University (Ukraine), focused on the role of digital lexicography in multilingual EU contexts.

It explored the use of AI in modern dictionary-making, digital tools for language learning and teaching, and the integration of lexicographic resources in school education and teacher training. The module also addressed EU policies promoting multilingualism and examined future trends in digital lexicography, including ethical and user-centered innovations.

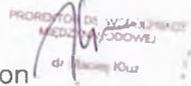

Emphasis was placed on how digital dictionaries support European values, intercultural understanding, and inclusive education in the age of digital transformation.

Total Duration: 3 academic hours
Total Credits Earned: 0,1 ECTS credits

The event is organized within the framework of the ESPERIDTA project – European Studies for Supporting Polish Education and Research in Digital Transformation: Interdisciplinary Approach (Grant Agreement 101172710 – ESPERIDTA – ERASMUS-JMO-2024-HEI-TCH-RSCH).

Dr. Maciej Kluz

Vice-Rector for International Cooperation

Funded by European Union

Dr. Yan Kapranov

Project Coordinator

Date: 26.03.25

LinkedIn

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

Series SS 01-2025-46

This is to certify that
Степан Боднарчук

facebook

has successfully completed the Roundtable Discussion
“Digital Lexicography in the Age of AI: Challenges and Innovations for Multilingual Europe”
organized on March 26, 2025 (online via Zoom), as part of the Summer School module
“European Studies for Supporting Polish Education and Research in Digital Transformation: An Interdisciplinary Approach”,
covering the following key topics:

LinkedIn

- The Role of AI in Digital Lexicography
- Digital Lexicography for Language Learning and Teaching
- EU Lexicographic Policies and Multilingualism
- Future Trends in Digital Lexicography
- Dictionaries in Teacher Training and School Education

This roundtable discussion, delivered by Dr. Yan Kapranov, Assistant Professor at the School of Humanities and Fine Arts, University of Economics and Human Sciences in Warsaw (Poland), and Prof. Olena Semenog, Director of the Center for Scientific-Educational Partnership and Network Cooperation of Sумы State Pedagogical University (Ukraine), focused on the role of digital lexicography in multilingual EU contexts.

It explored the use of AI in modern dictionary-making, digital tools for language learning and teaching, and the integration of lexicographic resources in school education and teacher training. The module also addressed EU policies promoting multilingualism and examined future trends in digital lexicography, including ethical and user-centered innovations.

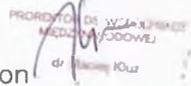

Emphasis was placed on how digital dictionaries support European values, intercultural understanding, and inclusive education in the age of digital transformation.

Total Duration: 3 academic hours
Total Credits Earned: 0,1 ECTS credits

The event is organized within the framework of the ESPERIDTA project – European Studies for Supporting Polish Education and Research in Digital Transformation: Interdisciplinary Approach (Grant Agreement 101172710 – ESPERIDTA – ERASMUS-JMO-2024-HEI-TCH-RSCH).

Dr. Maciej Kluz

Vice-Rector for International Cooperation

Funded by European Union

Dr. Yan Kapranov

Project Coordinator

Date: 26.03.25

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

Series SS 01-2025-7

This is to certify that

Vadym Ilchuk

facebook

has successfully completed the Roundtable Discussion
“Digital Lexicography in the Age of AI: Challenges and Innovations for Multilingual Europe”

organized on March 26, 2025 (online via Zoom), as part of the Summer School module
“European Studies for Supporting Polish Education and Research in Digital Transformation: An Interdisciplinary Approach”,
covering the following key topics:

- The Role of AI in Digital Lexicography
- Digital Lexicography for Language Learning and Teaching
- EU Lexicographic Policies and Multilingualism
- Future Trends in Digital Lexicography
- Dictionaries in Teacher Training and School Education

LinkedIn

This roundtable discussion, delivered by Dr. Yan Kapranov, Assistant Professor at the School of Humanities and Fine Arts, University of Economics and Human Sciences in Warsaw (Poland), and Prof. Olena Semenog, Director of the Center for Scientific-Educational Partnership and Network Cooperation of Sумы State Pedagogical University (Ukraine), focused on the role of digital lexicography in multilingual EU contexts.

It explored the use of AI in modern dictionary-making, digital tools for language learning and teaching, and the integration of lexicographic resources in school education and teacher training. The module also addressed EU policies promoting multilingualism and examined future trends in digital lexicography, including ethical and user-centered innovations.

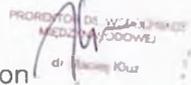

Emphasis was placed on how digital dictionaries support European values, intercultural understanding, and inclusive education in the age of digital transformation.

Total Duration: 3 academic hours
Total Credits Earned: 0,1 ECTS credits

The event is organized within the framework of the ESPERIDTA project – European Studies for Supporting Polish Education and Research in Digital Transformation: Interdisciplinary Approach (Grant Agreement 101172710 – ESPERIDTA – ERASMUS-JMO-2024-HEI-TCH-RSCH).

Dr. Maciej Kluz

Vice-Rector for International Cooperation

Funded by European Union

Dr. Yan Kapranov

Project Coordinator

Date: 26.03.25

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

Series SS 01-2025-13

This is to certify that

Зінзюк Олег

facebook

has successfully completed the Roundtable Discussion

“Digital Lexicography in the Age of AI: Challenges and Innovations for Multilingual Europe”

organized on March 26, 2025 (online via Zoom), as part of the Summer School module

“European Studies for Supporting Polish Education and Research in Digital Transformation: An Interdisciplinary Approach”,

covering the following key topics:

- The Role of AI in Digital Lexicography
- Digital Lexicography for Language Learning and Teaching
- EU Lexicographic Policies and Multilingualism
- Future Trends in Digital Lexicography
- Dictionaries in Teacher Training and School Education

LinkedIn

This roundtable discussion, delivered by Dr. Yan Kapranov, Assistant Professor at the School of Humanities and Fine Arts, University of Economics and Human Sciences in Warsaw (Poland), and Prof. Olena Semenog, Director of the Center for Scientific-Educational Partnership and Network Cooperation of Sumy State Pedagogical University (Ukraine), focused on the role of digital lexicography in multilingual EU contexts.

It explored the use of AI in modern dictionary-making, digital tools for language learning and teaching, and the integration of lexicographic resources in school education and teacher training. The module also addressed EU policies promoting multilingualism and examined future trends in digital lexicography, including ethical and user-centered innovations.

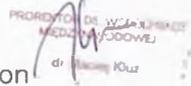

Emphasis was placed on how digital dictionaries support European values, intercultural understanding, and inclusive education in the age of digital transformation.

Total Duration: 3 academic hours
Total Credits Earned: 0,1 ECTS credits

The event is organized within the framework of the ESPERIDTA project – European Studies for Supporting Polish Education and Research in Digital Transformation: Interdisciplinary Approach (Grant Agreement 101172710 – ESPERIDTA – ERASMUS-JMO-2024-HEI-TCH-RSCH).

Dr. Maciej Kluz

Vice-Rector for International Cooperation

Funded by European Union

Dr. Yan Kapranov

Project Coordinator

Date: 26.03.25

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

Series SS 01-2025-17

This is to certify that

Максим Лесик

facebook

has successfully completed the Roundtable Discussion
“Digital Lexicography in the Age of AI: Challenges and Innovations for Multilingual Europe”
organized on March 26, 2025 (online via Zoom), as part of the Summer School module
“European Studies for Supporting Polish Education and Research in Digital Transformation: An Interdisciplinary Approach”,
covering the following key topics:

- The Role of AI in Digital Lexicography
- Digital Lexicography for Language Learning and Teaching
- EU Lexicographic Policies and Multilingualism
- Future Trends in Digital Lexicography
- Dictionaries in Teacher Training and School Education

This roundtable discussion, delivered by Dr. Yan Kapranov, Assistant Professor at the School of Humanities and Fine Arts, University of Economics and Human Sciences in Warsaw (Poland), and Prof. Olena Semenog, Director of the Center for Scientific-Educational Partnership and Network Cooperation of Sумы State Pedagogical University (Ukraine), focused on the role of digital lexicography in multilingual EU contexts.

It explored the use of AI in modern dictionary-making, digital tools for language learning and teaching, and the integration of lexicographic resources in school education and teacher training. The module also addressed EU policies promoting multilingualism and examined future trends in digital lexicography, including ethical and user-centered innovations.

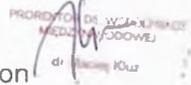

Emphasis was placed on how digital dictionaries support European values, intercultural understanding, and inclusive education in the age of digital transformation.

Total Duration: 3 academic hours
Total Credits Earned: 0,1 ECTS credits

The event is organized within the framework of the ESPERIDTA project – European Studies for Supporting Polish Education and Research in Digital Transformation: Interdisciplinary Approach (Grant Agreement 101172710 – ESPERIDTA – ERASMUS-JMO-2024-HEI-TCH-RSCH).

Dr. Maciej Kluz

Vice-Rector for International Cooperation

Funded by European Union

Dr. Yan Kapranov

Project Coordinator

Date: 26.03.25

LinkedIn

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

Series SS 01-2025-51

This is to certify that

Миськів Сергій

has successfully completed the Roundtable Discussion

“Digital Lexicography in the Age of AI: Challenges and Innovations for Multilingual Europe”

organized on March 26, 2025 (online via Zoom), as part of the Summer School module

“European Studies for Supporting Polish Education and Research in Digital Transformation: An Interdisciplinary Approach”,

covering the following key topics:

- The Role of AI in Digital Lexicography
- Digital Lexicography for Language Learning and Teaching
- EU Lexicographic Policies and Multilingualism
- Future Trends in Digital Lexicography
- Dictionaries in Teacher Training and School Education

This roundtable discussion, delivered by Dr. Yan Kapranov, Assistant Professor at the School of Humanities and Fine Arts, University of Economics and Human Sciences in Warsaw (Poland), and Prof. Olena Semenog, Director of the Center for Scientific-Educational Partnership and Network Cooperation of Sumy State Pedagogical University (Ukraine), focused on the role of digital lexicography in multilingual EU contexts.

It explored the use of AI in modern dictionary-making, digital tools for language learning and teaching, and the integration of lexicographic resources in school education and teacher training. The module also addressed EU policies promoting multilingualism and examined future trends in digital lexicography, including ethical and user-centered innovations.

Emphasis was placed on how digital dictionaries support European values, intercultural understanding, and inclusive education in the age of digital transformation.

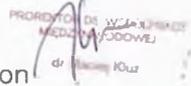

Total Duration: 3 academic hours

Total Credits Earned: 0,1 ECTS credits

The event is organized within the framework of the ESPERIDTA project – European Studies for Supporting Polish Education and Research in Digital Transformation: Interdisciplinary Approach (Grant Agreement 101172710 – ESPERIDTA – ERASMUS-JMO-2024-HEI-TCH-RSCH).

Dr. Maciej Kluz

Vice-Rector for International Cooperation

Funded by European Union

Dr. Yan Kapranov

Project Coordinator

Date: 26.03.25

facebook

LinkedIn

